

Paragraph3 Holdings LLC

Jonathan Lidz is the Chief Executive and founder of Paragraph3 Holdings LLC a luxury hospitality developer focused on European hotels and resorts. In that capacity Mr. Lidz has worked on projects in France, Russia, Croatia, and Great Britain.

Prior to launching Paragraph3 Holdings Jonathan was a Co-Founder of Homeland Defense Ventures. HDV provided consulting and advisory services to private equity and venture capital firms interested in investing in the emerging homeland defense industry.

From 1993 to 2002 Jonathan was the Chief Operating Officer of L.G. Lion and Co., Inc. and oversaw its expansion from a single US office to its current position as a leading supplier to the global apparel industry with offices throughout the US, Latin America, Asia and Europe. Jonathan was instrumental in the company's operational, technology and marketing strategies and pioneered the concepts and strategies of supply chain management for the global apparel supply chain.

From 1990 to 1993 Jonathan was a financial consultant in the corporate/institutional sales office of Merrill Lynch in New York City. In that capacity Jonathan worked with the principals of privately held corporations on qualified retirement plans, cash management, liquidity and succession issues.

Jonathan is a distinguished military graduate of Tufts University with a BA in political science and served as a commissioned officer in armored cavalry, civil affairs, and NATO rapid deployment headquarters units in the United States, and Germany. He graduated with high honors from the Transnational MBA program at Fordham University.

3 Allegheny Drive
Basking Ridge, NJ 07920
T 917.301.4353
F 917.463.1026
www.paragraph3.com